

Karuk Indigenous Basketweavers: LaVerne Glaze

- Starting out.
- The need for good quality and quantity of material created by burning.
- 1970 Herbicides. EPA testing.
- Karuk Indigenous Basketweavers
  - The invite to the agencies to come camp out at Louse Camp. Early 1990s.
  - Passport in Time: Follow the Smoke begins

Karuk Indigenous Basketweavers and California Indian Basketweavers Association

- 1993 as a result of Indian women and tribal practitioners needing an organized voice.
- 1995 Karuk Indigenous Basketweavers host Passport In Time Project

Passport in Time: Follow the Smoke

- Coming together for cultural/agency education
- Volunteers to come help and learn
- Addressing issues related to USFS and other federal management practices.

Management of Traditional Foods

Cultural Education: School outreach, apprentice and Agency managers and researchers

- Orleans Elementary
- Younger Native Women teaching basketweaving.
- Academic and agency partners and students.
- Community Forestry

Finding sites to burn on federal lands: LePerron Hazel Project Will it happen.

- Talked to the USFS
- Organized Tribal CCC crews
- Passport in Time-
Follow the Smoke
Volunteers
- Burnt hazel for basketry material will
it happen?

